

FRONTIERS

From the haze in your chambers
To your legs on the stage
I'm consumed by your danger
I can lose my restraint yea

I can take you even further
Oh yeah I
I'll let you enter
From the stage we shoot our guns
Then we sail off into the sun
While the cold world freezes on.

The view of the trails from the vapors
That we burn from a kiss
Heats the stars that we strangle
And its proof we exist yet

I can take it even further
Oh yeah I
I'll let you enter
From the stage we shoot our guns
Then we sail off into the sun
As the cold world freezes on...

Yeah I can take it even further
Oh Yeah I
I'll let you enter
From the stage we shoot our guns
Then we sail off into the sun
As the cold world freezes on...into the sun

PRURIEN†

How come you never rest your tongue?
How do you ever expect to learn?
I know you want to chase it
But don't wanna break your stride.
I know you wanna taste it
But don't wanna wet your mind.

I know you wanna try it
So go and dive in taste it, like it.
They've got you so excited
You wanna climb in, taste the violence.

Between the razors and the hooks
And from the blood that you cough up
I see you want a taste
But don't wanna wreck your life
I think you know the game
So go ahead and take a bite.

I know you wanna try it
So go and dive in taste it, like it.
They've got you so excited
You wanna climb in, taste the violence.

Uncovering your eyes, rediscovering the high...

I know you wanna try it
So go and climb in taste it, the violence.
They've got you so excited
So go and dive in, taste it, like it. Like it.

You hang there on the wall
You've carved out your place
But I can tell you shake from inside

I see it all the time
The feel is always there
Just frozen in your mind from inside.

I wasn't gonna play it tonight
But I can't help it the feelings alive,
As long as you play my game I'll let you win.

Before your entrance wave,
Before we play this game
I like to feel you break from inside.
You're gold and pink inside
And it's showing through your stare
It's frozen us in time from inside.

I wasn't gonna play it tonight
But I can't help it the feelings alive,
As long as you play my game
I'll let you win.

Come play my game...I'll let you win....

I wasn't gonna play it tonight
But I can't help it the feelings alive,
As long as you play my game I'll let you win.

I've been waiting
For you to say the words
As we sail across the universe
Entertaining
You bring me to a stare
As you wave you heart into the air

I walk away and play it safe.
It's strange how it works...

Take your vices and throw them in the drain
While you're laughing in the pouring rain.
Are you sorry?
Well can you find the words?
You just say the lines that you've rehearsed

And I'll walk away and play it safe like you.
I just walk away and play it cool.
It's strange how it works...

Just walk away and play it cool...
It's strange how it works.

In the waves a shoebox of ashes,
A silver casket,
A mother dressed for eternities breath.
